ENDLESS BLUE HORIZONS

This large home is the perfect family beach house at Skenes Creek, just a short drive from the bustling holiday hotspot of Apollo Bay.

It has five good sized bedrooms, two bathrooms and ample space both inside and out to relax and unwind. Cool in summer with electric blinds to create shade and warm in winter with a wood heater, this house is a great place to enjoy all that the area has to offer.

Having an elevated position on Bass Crescent means that this house takes in the magnificent views of Bass Strait, all the way out to the Southern Ocean where whales play throughout the winter and where night skies become magical on a clear night. It also has views towards the hills; Wedge Tail Eagles are frequently spotted here.
