A Flying Start For First Home Buyers!

In a price range achievable for first home buyers - you can take advantage of the recent government incentives with this impressive home! It consists of 3 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms, large open plan family/dining area, massive sunken lounge area with wood heater and timber lined walls throughout. The spacious baltic pine kitchen has dishwasher, electric oven, gas cook top and large walk in pantry. The home has an abundance of storage space and a wonderful country cottage feel. The backyard is neat and fully fenced, with established gardens. Great rental return for those looking for investment. Inspection of this property will impress.
