

16 Niblick Street ANGLESEA, VIC

PEACE AND SERENITY

Tucked away in a very private pocket of Anglesea sits this lovely beach house. The open plan kitchen, dining and living rooms with elevated ceiling are surrounded by huge windows capturing the wonderful morning sun aspect. A large timber deck is perfect for entertaining and enjoying the bird life and fresh air. With a split level design the 3 bedrooms are located separately to the living, which is great for privacy. All the bedrooms have BIR, the living space has a split system for heating and cooling. There is plenty of storage located under the house and off street parking for multiple cars. Being surrounded by natural bush and backing onto the golf course ensures all the peace and serenity you've ever desired. This home would be perfect for permanent living or use as a weekender!.
