STORM POINT COTTAGE

This captivating Peter McIntyre designed property has a sense of exclusivity and escape that creates conditions that are instantly, irresistibly seductive. Approached along its own private road, surrounded by rolling greenery and unforgettable scenery, this stunning retreat's gardens conclude with absolute ocean frontage and private access to the romantic beauty of Moo Cow Beach. From its elevated setting, the residence makes the most of such spectacular context. Living and dining spaces that watch the water are complemented by a deck that enhances the coastal connection and makes entertaining a delight while two bedrooms, each with their own sights of the sea, are served by two bathrooms, including a stylish ensuite. Window seats, heating/cooling and a generous kitchen overlooking a secluded rear deck complete a home of such immediate and enduring allure that you'll never want to leave. Close to Apollo Bay's cafes and shops, easily reached from Melbourne ? yet a wonderful world away. Truly Exceptional.
