UNDER OFFER

This lovely home is an original 1960's property with an abundance of character and appeal. It presents very well and has had renovations and updates over the years, making it comfortable and cosy.

The entry leads into an open living, dining and study area all overlooking both front and back garden. There is a modern style kitchen with stone benchtops, laminate cupboards and current appliances, rear doors lead out onto an undercover alfresco entertaining area that overlooks the beautiful private landscaped backyard. The north facing sun aspect, ensures bright sunshine throughout the day.

There are 3 bedrooms with BIR, 1 central bathroom with spa bath and separate shower. There is a shared lock up garage and off street parking plus wood fire and split system making this an overall perfect home to enjoy.
