PEACEFUL & SERENE BUSH RETREAT

This rare property is nestled on approximately 10 acres of beautiful native bush with two homes and will suit buyers who value position and privacy all within a 5 minute drive of the popular coastal town of Apollo Bay.

It has been the much-loved home for the past 20 years, some of which the owners have shared with international guests who have had the privilege to stay in the lodge accommodation on their trips along the world famous Great Ocean Road. This property is ideal for either the long term or short stay rental markets as well as the owner occupier, and could become the perfect "retreat style" business opportunity that you have been searching for.
