ORIGINAL CHARM, PRIME LOCATION

Presenting a rare opportunity in a tightly held pocket, this property is a renovator's delight located within walking distance to the main beach and surf club. This two-story, original solid beach house offers a unique charm and character in a sought-after location.

As you step inside, the wooden floorboards and wood staircase welcome you, setting the tone for a timeless aesthetic. The flowing floorplan seamlessly connects the open-plan living room, original kitchen, and hallway leading to three bedrooms. The central bathroom features a bath, and there's a separate laundry with an additional toilet and shower.

The lower level boasts a large sun-filled family living room with a feature fireplace and wood heater, complemented by large windows providing a treed vista. Upstairs, an ideal second living space or home office awaits, leading to a deck with treetop views.
