CONTEMPORARY COASTAL MASTERPIECE

Moments from Main Beach, with spectacular views across Anglesea to Point Addis, this architectural marvel elevates luxury coastal living to an art form. Designed by David Seeley, this six-bedroom residence masterfully blends concrete, timber, and glass, creating light-filled spaces that balance bold design with refined comfort. Every detail has been thoughtfully curated, from artisan stone walls to handcrafted finishes that reflect the natural beauty of its coastal surrounds.

A handmade, copper-clad front door welcomes you into a breathtaking double-height gallery, where a sculptural spiral staircase commands attention. The upper level is designed for effortless living and entertaining, with an expansive open plan kitchen, dining, and lounge warmed by a freestanding Cheminee Philippe fireplace.
