A RARE COASTAL SANCTUARY DEFINED BY SPACE AND SUST...

Amazingly private and peaceful, this exceptional residence is set within beautifully established grounds of almost one acre (approx.), capturing a prized northerly orientation with glimpses of blue water to the front and a serene bushland outlook to the rear. A rare offering in Anglesea, the property delivers a remarkable sense of space, self-sufficiency, and connection to its natural surroundings, with access to bushland quite literally at your back door.

From the moment you arrive, there is an immediate feeling of retreat. Surrounded by professionally designed native gardens, the home unfolds as a true sanctuary, where indoor and outdoor living have been thoughtfully connected. At its heart, an exceptional indoor and outdoor entertaining setting centres around the geothermal heated swimming pool with 20m lap lane and adjoining spa, complemented by a pizza oven and expansive outdoor zones, all immersed in tranquil treetop surrounds.
